

THIS IS THE TIME

When the poet says the young man's fancy turns. The old man's fancy turns too, and every one's fancy turns who has a little money. This pretty weather makes the man who has been afraid all the winter, look around now for some good lot to buy. Well, sir, we've got just what you want, 100 feet out on Jefferson street, that we can sell you for $1,000 less than anything in that section. Terms easy; but if you haven't the cash don't apply.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

T. O. Parker, vice-president of the Roanoke Real Estate Company, left yesterday afternoon for New York to close a sale to parties there for a large tract of coal land in West Virginia. While away he expects to place some large blocks of stock in a new building and construction company, now being organized in this city, for the building of medium-priced homes, to be sold on small monthly payments.

M. A. Garvin, of the Gettysburg and Harrisburg railroad, is in the city visiting his father-in-law, J. T. Smoot, on Church street.

G. E. Fletcher, for some time past assistant bookkeeper at Hotel Roanoke, has gone to Bluefield as chief clerk and cashier of Bluefield Inn.

R. R. Ratcliffe has returned from a visit to friends in North Carolina.

Cap. R. K. Rice and wife left yesterday for Rogersville, Tennessee, to visit their only child and daughter, who is attending the Synodical Institute, of which Prof. Wm. M. Graybill, formerly superintendent of public schools for this city, is the efficient and popular president.

Mrs. W. J. Rigney, wife of Officer Rigney, left yesterday morning for Danville, in response to a telegram announcing the serious illness of her father, Mr. W. J. Moore.

In the absence of the pastor, Dr. Flippen, Rev. J. E. Bushnell will occupy the Baptist pulpit on the first Sunday in May, and Rev. J. D. Martin will supply the pastor's place on the second Sunday.

T. J. Teaford is very ill at his home on Church street. Mr. Teaford is suffering with the grip and is threatened with pneumonia.

General Manager Joseph H. Sands, of the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, returned yesterday from a week's trip to New York, Philadelphia and Washington.

James A. Fishburne has gone to Franklin to visit relatives.

Horace H. Claxton, of the Pocahontas Coal Company, has returned from a trip in the interest of the company.

Mr. Moore is ill.

John R. Moore, of Milton, Pa., who came to Roanoke a few weeks ago with a view of locating, was taken sick shortly after his arrival, and has been confined to the home of his son-in-law, D. R. Swaveley, Nelson street. He is now improving and will be out in a short while.

The Elkton.
The Elkton, the handsome new hotel of Elkton, Va., recently erected by the Elkton Improvement Company will be opened Wednesday, May 6th. THE TIMES acknowledges the receipt of an invitation to be present.

Laborers all Employed.
Capt. Bass, foreman of the floating gang for the Shenandoah Valley railroad, was busy hiring hands yesterday. He finds most all of the laborers about the city are employed.
